Cleo Litters Street With Poles

This street in Miami, Fla., was left littered with power poles and transformers which was partly responsible for the almost complete power blackout of the city as hurricane Cleo struck.

CLEO LOSING PUNCH

Florida Coastal Cities Wrecked

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. — The surface winds of Hurricane Cleo, the storm that left a trail of death in the Caribbean and destruction on the Florida Gold Coast, dropped today to 40 miles an hour around the eye.

A Navy hurricane hunter plane that penetrated the storm at 9:30 a.m. EST, reported that high-level winds, however, still circle the eye at hurricane velocity, and Cleo still has comeback capability.

Cleo was centered at the time near St. Augustine, close to the coast and in position to draw more energy from the warm waters of the Atlantic. Hurricane warnings to the northward were left in effect.

After slamming Miami with 155-mile an hour blows, Cleo was gradually weakened by land friction in hit Cape Kennedy with winds that peaked at 65 m.p.h.

That was 10 miles below hurricane strength, not enough to cause serious damage to the sprawling facility, which was prepared to weather winds more than twice that velocity.

Six giant space rockets rode out the storm lashed securely to their launching pads and crews resumed the work of readying them for firing.

The storm was moving at about 10 m.p.h.

Cleo took no lives in Florida, but the death toll still was climbing in the southwestern tip of Haiti, far behind in the Caribbean.

In the Haitian port city of Les Cayes, Cleo killed 80 persons, destroyed or damaged nearly every building and left the population of 20,000 bewildered and with little food.

Authorities reported Thursday that 44 other persons were known to have died in the surrounding countryside, bringing to 124 the official death toll from Monday's howling winds.

Earlier, Cleo killed 14 on the French island of Guadeloupe.

There was no definite estimate of the damage to the Miami metropolitan area, which bore the brunt of Cleo's fury Thursday.

State damage survey teams were to arrive today, and officials said the federal government would be asked to declare the city a disaster area.

As it moved up the coast, Cleo smashed town after town and dealt a blow to a part of Florida's citrus belt that could send grapefruit prices rocketing upwards.

In the south-central area some growers estimated 50 to 75 per cent of the grapefruit crop, now reaching maturity, was blown off.

First surveys of damage showed:

Metropolitan Miami—eighty per cent power failure, 61,600 phones out of service, 12,000 homes damaged, store windows smashed and merchandise ruined, streets blocked by fallen trees and limbs, hotels, apartment houses and homes without windows or electricity.

ROCHELLE—The blockade of the Swift and Co. plant here by the National Farmers Organization today has, at press time, brought five arrests of area NFO members for trespassing.

move or unload at the request of Plant Manager Thomas Peier.

Capt. Raymond Cramer, State Police district superintendent, who has eight squad cars at the scene and who has called for more, said the stall-ins who refused to move their vehicles would be arrested and their vehicles towed away by wreckers.

In addition to State Police and the Rochelle Police, Ogle County Sheriff William Spencer and Ogle County State's Atty. John Moore are at the plant to help bring an orderly solution to the tieup.

A Telegraph reporter on the scene reported that the cars and trucks

The NFO holding action in 23 states entered the 10th day today, winding up the first market week in which short deliveries had caused prices to rise only to fall back

Truth Hurts Less, Dixon Youths Learn in Court

"The truth hurts" is an expression all of us have heard for many years but for two Dixon youths convicted of car theft the truth hurts less than telling a lie.

In a radical departure from normal court probation proceedings, Circuit Judge Robert L. Bracken this morning granted probation to Gerald Withrow, 17, 812 S. Forest Dr., and Robert L. Pate, 17, 831 S. Forest Dr., totally on the strength of the two boys telling the court the truth to questions asked of them by Judge Bracken.

The boys were given one-year probation each and a total of 15 days each in the Lee County Jail. Both of them have been in the jail for 11 days after being unable to post bond and Judge Bracken gave them credit for the time already served.

In addition, Pate was told by the judge to return to classes at Dixon High School. Pate dropped out of school last year to work but in court today, he told the judge he realized his mistake of not finishing school. He is expected to be a junior when classes start for the fall term.

Pate and Withrow were convicted of stealing a late-model sports car from the parking lot at Robert's Ford Sales the night of Aug. 16, and using it to "joy ride" in Dixon.

In normal probation hearings, character witnesses for the convicted are paraded before the court to testify and plead for mercy before normal sentencing is pronounced, the judge said.

At today's hearing, however, Judge Bracken said he wasn't going to allow any of the witnesses to testify because, "I've heard it all a thousand times before and I know beforehand what they are going to say."

In an interview with the judge, The Telegraph learned that Bracken would give the boys a chance to either put themselves in prison by telling lies or he would give them the opportunity to be placed on probation by telling the truth.

"I hope they realize what a chance they've been given to make something out of themselves," Bracken said. "I didn't give them any break, they gave themselves the break by telling me the truth."

"If either of them had so much as lied to me about the slightest thing, I would have sent them away," he finished.

Under the terms of the probation, both boys have to observe all current regulations and report to County Probation Officer Robert Reed on a regular basis.

Attend the Church of Your Faith Regularly

Sometimes the future looks black; we can't see a glimmer of light anywhere . . . and we ask for help without really expecting an answer. But we're wrong. Even that small word, "help" means that we have realized our own inadequacy and turned to Something outside ourselves for guidance.

Called, or not called, "God is an ever-present help in trouble." And whenever we ask Him to intervene, our lives are filled with new hope and inspiration.

He does not ask us to worry about the future. In fact, He doesn't intend us to worry at all. Worry indicates uncertainty and fear, and these have no place in Christian living.

Perhaps you are thinking "That takes greater faith than I'll ever have!" But you forget God's help. Perfect trust . . . serene peace of mind . . . these are your birthright. And your Church will teach you to attain them.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Bus Routes To Operate In Rochelle

ROCHELLE — Rochelle Township High School will provide bus transportation for rural high school students again this year. Seven bus routes similar to those used last year have been established and students are advised that they will be picked up at approximately the same time as last year on the first day of school Sept. 1.

This will assure them of arriving on time for classes which start at 8:20 a.m. If students have any questions relative to the time of the buses, they are advised to contact by phone the bus driver in their area.

A special orientation meeting of all new teachers and practice teachers in Rochelle Township High School this fall will be conducted by Supt. Leroy Peterson on Friday at 1:30 p.m. On Monday the full faculty of 52 teachers will meet in the east study hall from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. and from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Sunday afternoon Supt. and Mrs. Peterson will provide a reception and tea for the families of all the teachers at their home to enable all of the employees of the local high school to become better acquainted.

RELIGION IN THE NEWS

Change to English Masses May Increase Worship

By HARRY F. ROSENTHAL
ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — "Frankly," said the priest, "a lot of Roman Catholics haven't been coming to Mass because it's been a bore."

"They hear and say things they don't understand, therefore they must derive meaning out of a book — either the Mass book or some book in explanation of the Mass book," said the Rev. Gerard S. Sloyan.

Father Sloyan, head of the religious education department of the Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., is an enthusiastic supporter of Mass in the vernacular — the local language. It was introduced this week at both high and low Masses of the 25th annual liturgical week, a four-day workshop on church matters.

Father Sloyan was president of this year's liturgical conference and is author of a number of books including "Shaping the Christian Message" and "Christ the Lord."

"What is being sought is comprehensibility, in the interests of better prayer," he said.

"We will get revised rites in a period between two and five years, at a guess," Father Sloyan said. "They will be written in Latin, with freedom on the part of national groups of bishops to render them into the local tongue with Rome's approval. Individual national hierarchies may also determine their own worship forms."

The change to English Masses will help bring the average Catholic to know better what he is doing, Father Sloyan says.

"Until now, the priest has been doing everything and the people have been following," he says. "By praying in his own language, the Catholic should have greater understanding of his religion. And understanding is a necessary condition for fervent prayer."

Swedish Musician To Perform

Lennart Sandbergh, the musician from Sweden, with his specialty instrument, the 10-stringed lute, dating back to Bible days, will give a musical concert in the Alliance Church, Fifth and Ottawa, Sunday at 7:30 p.m. He will also take part in the worship services at the East Grove Union Church at 9:15 a.m. Sunday, and in the Alliance Church at 10:45 a.m.

Sandbergh's musical ministry continues on the highest spiritual and professional plane. His distinction as the country's only touring lute player is some evidence of the rarity of that ancient instrument.

In his native Sweden, Lennart Sandbergh is an ordained minister. His 16 years as a pastor were spent with The Salvation Army and were followed by four years of musical tours sponsored by the Swedish government. He has performed in England, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Canada, Cuba and in the Bahamas.

Tourists' Views on Dixon

Chamber of Commerce
Dixon, Ill.
Gentlemen:

On July 16 my husband and I traveled through your city on our way to the Northwest. We were very impressed with the beauty of your main street and all those gorgeous petunias. I wished we had stopped long enough to ask a few questions, such as: Who had the wonderful idea? How many people took part in the project and how many plants were required?

No matter what the answers may be, we enjoyed them so much and I am reminded of Dixon every time I look up the road from our home because a neighbor has almost the same shade of petunias, making her yard beautiful too.

Congratulations and hats off to all who took part in your wonderful and successful project.

Mrs. L. F. Delcamp
Homerville, Ohio

Dear Sir:

In mid July, we drove through Dixon on our way to Warren.

Our family had been traveling since early July through Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Pennsylvania, New York, Washington, D.C., Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, but we still recall with great deal of pleasure, the lovely sight of your town's petunias gladly welcoming visitors. I would like to express our pleasure and offer congratulations to the Chamber of Commerce and to those responsible for such a pretty main street.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Edward Hulener

Emotional Outpouring for Kennedy at Convention

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (P) — Tears glistened in the eyes of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy as he faced the cheering thousands.

He stood solemn and silent during the 13-minute emotional outburst touched off when he went before the Democratic National Convention Thursday night to honor the memory of his brother, the assassinated President John F. Kennedy.

There were no balloons, no gimmicks, no rousing band music to spur the delegates to action. There was only an outpouring of emotion.

Robert Kennedy, who is now a candidate for the U.S. Senate from New York, stood with head bowed while the wave of noise swept over him while he waited to introduce a brother's brief years as President.

Seven times Kennedy sought to begin his speech, but could get no farther than "Mr. Chairman." Each attempt touched off a swelling roar from the throats of the thousands of delegates and spectators that carried the tumult ever higher.

Twice he stepped back and conventional officials tried to still the noise, but without effect. Finally, as Kennedy once again began to speak over the shouting, it subsided, and a twinkling rapt silence replaced the noise. It was, at once, the quietest and most poignant moment of the four-day convention.

As Kennedy spoke of the hopes and ideals that sustained his brother during his three years as President, and of his pride in the Democratic party, many delegates wept.

Even more handkerchiefs appeared during the film that followed, especially at the end when President Kennedy was shown playing with his children and taking part in happy family activities.

The attorney general took a seat at the back of the platform while the film ran. He watched part of it on a television set in front of him, then turned to watch it on the huge screen mounted at the end of convention hall for the delegates to see.

But as the final, family scenes unrolled he turned away from both and sat looking into space. And when the lights came back on, he ducked his head below the platform wall and dabbed at his eyes with a handkerchief before walking quickly out the back.

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Fla. — A double funeral will be held Monday afternoon for a father and son killed in a truck accident at 4:40 a.m. Wednesday at Belle Glade, Fla.

Killed were Ross T. Hicks, 38, and his son, Dennis, 15, former residents of Harmon, Ill., who were returning home to North Hollywood in a meat truck after Hicks had made a delivery in Tampa.

A source close to the family said today that the truck went off the roadway and into a culvert where it burst into flames.

Mr. Hicks was born May 19, 1926, in Harmon, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hicks, and was married to Ellen Kinn Hamilton, in Dixon, Oct. 18, 1947.

Dennis Ross Hicks was born Aug. 24, 1949, in Dixon. He is also survived by his maternal grandfather, Harry Kinn, Dixon.

Services for the father and son will be held at 2 p.m. Monday in the Hollywood Hills Methodist Church, and burial will be in the Hollywood Hills Cemetery.

There will be no visitation.

Ford Signs Extension Of Current Contract

DETROIT (P) — The first sign of "give" in new contract bargaining between the United Auto Workers Union and the automotive industry's Big Three came from Ford Motor Co. Thursday.

Ford agreed in principle to extension of its current contract with the UAW until Sept. 9. Normally, the three-year-old pact would expire Monday night.

The UAW announced Wednesday night it had picked Chrysler Corp. as its 1964 strike target and would call its 80,000 members in Chrysler plants out at 10 a.m. Sept. 9 unless agreement is reached on a new contract by that time.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther said Chrysler, Ford and General Motors Corp. would be asked to extend their contracts to the strike deadline. GM and Chrysler told newsmen

Thursday they would await a formal union request across the bargaining table before announcing a decision.

But after an hour's meeting at Ford, the company announced it had agreed to extend, although formal language still has to be approved by both sides.

GM and Chrysler bargaining was in recess Thursday. New sessions, however, were scheduled at all three today. Talks at Chrysler were to follow a meeting of the UAW's Chrysler council which would direct any strike activity.

Ford, like GM and Chrysler, had served contract termination notice on the UAW, saying in effect the union would have to work without a contract beyond Monday midnight if no new agreement was reached by that time.

later with the leveling off of receipts at major market terminals.

An estimated 300 to 400 NFO sympathizers staged a yelling, jeering demonstration Thursday at Waukon, Iowa, where a farm bureau service company, FS Services, Inc., scheduled a livestock auction at a marketing center.

Sixteen arrests have been made. Five NFO members were fined $50 and costs each at Waukon on charges of violating an Iowa boycott law.

The NFO seeks to have livestock buyers sign contracts giving farmers basic prices of $32.45 a hundredweight on cattle, $22.75 on hogs and $29.45 a hundredweight on sheep. These prices are well above current levels.

Boy Scout Court of Honor Held

Scoutmaster Fred Billeb showed slides of a Boy Scout trip to Canada at a court of honor for St. Luke's Brotherhood of St. Andrew's Boy Scout Troop held earlier this week.

Steve Hill received the Star Scout award from Billeb, and Scoutmaster Morton Stevens awarded First Class awards to Mike Bender, Tom Smith and John Stevens. Second Class pins were presented to Daniel Swanson, Kurt Nelson and Tom Miller; and Tenderfoot badges were given to Bill Swanson and Tom Miller.

Merit badges went to Dan Stoudt, Gary Disten, Richard Rhodes, Ron Woessner and Steve Hill and were presented by Advancement Chairman Senio Disten.

The next court of honor will be held Oct. 27. The troop returned Sunday evening from a two-day canoeing trip down the Rock River from Lawrence Park in Sterling to the Boat Club Park at Erie. The trip covered more than 40 miles.

Withholding Action Has Little Effect on Sales

WASHINGTON (P) — An Agriculture Department report today showed that the livestock withholding drive of the National Farmers Organization (NFO) had little effect on the number of meat animals marketed last week.

The withholding campaign covered the last three days of the week. Its goal was to force buyers to pay higher prices for cattle, hogs, sheep and lambs.

A department livestock market review said sales of cattle and calves at 12 major midwestern markets last week totaled 208,674 head compared with 228,675 in the like week a year earlier. Likewise, sales of hogs totaled 248,745 compared with 252,893 and of sheep and lambs 67,811 compared with 66,627.

No figures were available yet on sales this week, but unofficial reports indicate they were down by a larger percentage during the first part of this week than in the last part of last week.

MILWAUKEE (P) — Falling prices have provided the latest developments in the National Farmers Organization's livestock withholding plan.

As the withholding action, launched in 23 states, completed its ninth day Thursday, livestock receipts were slowly returning to normal at the Milwaukee stockyards.

The increased shipments led several packers to say they believe the holding action is "just about over as far as we are concerned."

Jackie Honored At Reception

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (P) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy greeted thousands of Democratic delegates with a smile and a handshake at a reception in her honor. But she left town before the convention paid tribute to her assassinated husband in its closing session.

The five-hour-long reception, given Thursday by Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman and Mrs. Harriman, was the first large public function the former First Lady has attended since last November's tragedy.

Accompanied by several of the Kennedy clan — sister-in-law Eunice Shriver, Jean Smith and Pat Lawford — Mrs. Kennedy flew in for the occasion. After the last guest had filed past the receiving line, she left town bound for her mother's summer home in Newport, R.I.

A family spokesman said the filmed memorial tribute for her husband would be too much of an emotional ordeal for her.

The reception, held in a hotel's white and gold ballroom, was so large it had to be divided into three sections. Lynda Johnson, the President's 20-year-old daughter, dropped in on the first, while her mother paid her respects later.

At each session the former First Lady, who wore a simple V-neck, sleeveless, two-piece white ribbed silk dress and white shoes and gloves, made a brief speech.

"I want to thank all of you for coming who helped President Kennedy in 1960," she said in a soft, barely audible voice.

Percy Criticizes Kerner

KEWANEE (P) — The Republican nominee for governor of Illinois, Charles Percy, criticized Gov. Otto Kerner today for "making a major issue of the fact that several prominent Republicans have offered to campaign on my behalf in Illinois."

Percy addressed his comments in a speech prepared for a breakfast gathering of Henry County Republican officials.

The GOP candidate said Kerner's "criticisms appear . . . to be much ado about nothing, a phrase which may aptly describe the entire Kerner administration."

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton have agreed to speak in Illinois on Percy's behalf.

"The Democrats have already had Lyndon Johnson in Chicago and Harry Truman in Springfield to help swell their campaign coffers," Percy said. "Democrats think nothing of importing not only speakers but actual candidates, such as we've seen in California and New York of late."

Percy said he would be "proud to welcome to Illinois . . . distinguished Americans who are interested in restoring responsibility to state government."

"I will be interested," Percy said, "to see if my opponent keeps his word that no out-of-state Democrats will campaign for him in Illinois."

Cyprus Tension

NICCSIA, Cyprus (P) — Danger of an armed clash between Greece and Turkey loomed anew today as Greek Cypriots threatened to repel a landing by Turkish replacement troops on Cyprus.

SPRINGFIELD — Billie R. Kimmel, 807 W. Third St., and Clarence O. Peterson, Blackhawk Hotel, both of Dixon, and Everett W. Kruse, Walnut, had their driver's licenses revoked for driving while intoxicated, according to a release from Secretary of State William Chamberlain.

Cleo Oddities

MIAMI, Fla. (P) — An airplane flew without a pilot, a man sunk his boat in a swimming pool to protect it and a group of children had an ice cream party because of Hurricane Cleo.

In Miami, a twin-engine DC3 apparently took off from Opa-locka Airport as Cleo swirled by. Nobody saw the flight, but the plane cleared several obstacles that could have been avoided only by traveling up. "She just snapped her ropes and took off," said maintenance man Brian MacDonald. "All that wind rushing under the wings creates lift, and that's all you need to fly."

In West Palm Beach, a young suburbanite dropped his motor boat into his backyard swimming pool to protect it from Cleo's 100-mile winds, a trick fishermen learned centuries ago when they sunk their craft into lagoons and rivers at the approach of bad weather. Then, as now, it works.

A West Palm Beach housewife inadvertently stocked up on a freezer full of ice cream the afternoon before Cleo struck. Her power went out and the ice cream threatened to drip all over the kitchen. Instead, she hauled it out and gave the neighborhood children an ice cream party.

In Delray Beach, a veteran of World War I said Cleo was "worse than Argonne." The man, C. J. Hidet, 72, is custodian at the drive-in theatre and lives at the bottom of the huge, extra wide screen in a four-room apartment.

Cleo ripped the screen apart bit by bit, hurling 4x4 wood beams through the ceiling of Hidet's apartment. "I just kept retreating from room to room as the beams came through the ceiling," he said. "This was my first hurricane and I hope it is my last."

In Miami, two trustees at the Dade County Jail were assigned mopping up duties after Hurricane Cleo, and took advantage of the confusion to escape — barefooted.

Today in Washington

WASHINGTON — Federal tax collections reached a record of $112 billion during the fiscal year that ended June 30.

During the last four months of the period, the income tax cut was in effect. But most of the taxes collected during this period on 1963 income, so they did not reflect any substantial impact of the tax cut.

Treasury officials said it will be impossible to assess the full effect of the tax cut until taxes on 1964 income are collected next April 15.

WASHINGTON — The Air Force has been accused of making excessive living-quarter allowances to civilian employees in Japan which in 1962 averaged 40 per cent above allowable expenses.

A report Thursday to Congress by the comptroller general's office said some of the employees received "windfall profits."

It also said that the Air Force granted the maximum prescribed rates for living quarter allowances for civilian employees in foreign areas even when regulations required reductions.

WASHINGTON — The United States and the Philippines reached agreement in principle Thursday on a treaty to avoid double taxation.

The treaty assures American companies which pay taxes in the Philippines that they will be given a credit on the payment of taxes owed to the United States.

TOKYO — The Japanese government agreed today to allow U.S. nuclear powered submarines to call at Japanese ports.

The matter has provoked considerable controversy among the Japanese, and their government has been debating the issue for a year and eight months.

To pacify the public, the U.S. Navy has promised the submarines will not carry nuclear tipped rockets.

The Navy says it asked for permission to dock the submarines so that crews can go ashore for leave.

There were no immediate indications when the first nuclear powered submarine would arrive.

WAIDHAUS, Germany — Two 21-year-old Czechoslovaks rammed a truck through Communist border barriers today and escaped to West Germany under heavy Red fire, German police reported.

The two escaped at Rozvadov, main border crossing point between Czechoslovakia and West Germany.

LONDON — British archeologists report they have made "sensational" discoveries in the area in Egypt soon to be flooded by the Anwan High Dam.

The annual report of the British Academy said Thursday the finds included the tomb of a bishop of the 14th century A.D. and details about Egyptian forts which existed 20 centuries before the birth of Christ.

The report said the bishop's tomb was found in the fortified town of Kasr Ibrahim, once the southernmost frontier of the Roman Empire.

Police Shoot Man

CHICAGO — Police shot and killed a man Thursday after a 14-year-old girl said he tried to rape her.

The man, Joseph Anthony Giusti, 19, was pointed out from a patrol car by the girl and one of her girlfriends as he walked on the near Northwest Side.

Officer Raymond Broda gave chase on foot. He said he was forced to shoot Giusti when the youth attacked him with a tree branch.

The girl told police Giusti assaulted her with a knife but fled when she and her friend screamed.

Fifteenth of a Series on Pro Football Prospects

George Mira Must Wait Turn

ST. MARY'S, Calif. — George Mira, the exciting rookie quarterback from Miami, is going to have to wait his turn with the San Francisco 49ers because the No. 1 job belongs to John Brodie.

Jack Christiansen, the former assistant coach who succeeded Red Hickey as boss man after the third game of the 1963 season, reports that Brodie has been going real good for the 49ers and has taken charge. Brodie missed most of last season because of a broken forearm suffered in an auto accident.

Christiansen is a practical man who realizes he can't do any overnight miracle job on a club that finished with a 2-12 record last season. Injuries did cripple the 49ers in '63. Instead of cleaning house and calling in new troops, Christiansen is hoping the men who were hurt last year will perform up to their potential.

Included in that category are veterans like defensive end Dan Colchico, defensive tackle Charlie Krueger, safety man Jerry Mertens and halfback Bill Kilmer. Colchico had two knee operations. Both Krueger and Mertens had knee injuries and Kilmer suffered a severely fractured leg in an auto crash in 1962 and missed all of the 1963 season.

Probably the top rookies are Mira, end Dave Parks of Texas Tech, the No. 1 draft in the entire National Football League, and line-backer Dave Wilcox of Oregon. Lee Grosscup, who has been making the rounds since he left New York, is getting a look at quarterback.

Brodie's receiving corps includes Clyde Conner, Bernie Casey, Kay McFarland and rookies Bob Poole of Clemson, Vern Burke of Oregon State and Parks. Without Brodie last year, the 49ers were last in the league in passing and 11th in running.

As with so many clubs in the NFL, running backs are a problem. The 49ers have Don Lisbon at half-back and J. D. Smith at fullback. Behind them the best are Mike Lind, hurt last year, rookie Dave Kopay and Kilmer, who still isn't up to par.

Big Bob St. Clair, back for his 12th year, and Len Rohde are the offensive tackles backed by Walt Rock. John Thomas and Leon Donohue start at guard and Bruce Bosley is the center, backed by Frank Morze.

Karl Rubke has been playing left end on defense but Colchico will

Olympic Candidate Wishes to Represent His Native Country

CHICAGO — A young walker of championship caliber, who cannot compete for the United States because he lacks full citizenship, said today he wants to represent his native Poland at the Olympic games in Japan.

"I have thought out my problem very carefully," Matt Rutyna told an interviewer, "and I've decided that I just have to compete in the Olympics this year or I never will."

"For this reason, I have written the Polish Athletic Union and asked if I can compete for Poland in Japan."

Rutyna is 33 and unmarried. He came to the United States in 1959 and recently obtained his first citizenship papers. His full citizenship, when granted, will come in 1969.

Under rules governing the U.S. Olympic trials for the 50-kilometer race walk to be held Sept. 5 in Seattle, "the first three citizens of the United States who finish the distance" will represent this country in Tokyo.

The lean, muscular walker has been competing in this country since about a month after he came to Chicago in 1959 on a student visa. Through an act of Congress, brought by U.S. Rep. Roman Pucinski, D-Ill., Rutyna was permitted to remain in the United States when his visa expired.

He won 12 of his first 16 races at distances of three miles and more. Two weeks ago, he was timed in an unofficial 4 hours, 25 minutes and 15 seconds for 50 kilometers.

The American record for the 50 kilos is 4:44.14, set by Chris McCarthy of Chicago in 1963. The Olympic record of 4:25.30 was set at Rome in 1960 by Donald Thompson of Great Britain. The world record is 4:14.24 set by A. Pamich of Italy in 1961 at Rome.

William Ross, vice chairman of the National AAU race walking committee and a longtime walker, said he believes "Rutyna will do better in the next few months" than his Soldier Field effort.

Ross said he feels Rutyna has just about reached the peak of his career.

Unitas of Old Leads Colts To 41-14 Rout of Redskins

Washington's Redskins are supposed to be a new look outfit. But they've won only one of four, which is not new. This is a bad thing.

Baltimore, on the other hand, has an old look. Like Johnny Unitas. He's looking like the old Johnny Unitas. This is a very good thing.

Unitas, guiding light in Baltimore's National Football League championship years in 1958 and 1959, had all the marks of the Unitas of that era Thursday night as he directed the Colts to a 41-14 exhibition rout of the Redskins.

Unitas, one of the most feared passers in the game, connected on two touchdown passes and engineered another drive against the Redskins, whose two previous losses had been by a single point.

A sellout crowd of 45,016 jammed into D.C. Stadium in Washington for the game and saw Unitas get the defensive help that was lacking last season in the game that opened a full, 11-game weekend exhibition schedule for the major pros.

Four more games are scheduled tonight — two each in the National and American Football Leagues — and six are on tap Saturday.

The top game tonight has the St. Louis Cardinals and defending champion Chicago Bears, each with a 2-1 record, playing in Chicago. Both have played Green Bay, the Cards winning 20-7 and the Bears losing 21-7.

Detroit, unbeaten but once tied, is expected to use ex-Brown Milt Pritchard against Cleveland in the Lions' home game. The Browns, now 2-1 and again getting stand-out running from Jimmy Brown, will have quarterback Frank Ryan back in action. Ryan sat out last week's 42-7 victory over Pittsburgh with a sore shoulder.

In the American League, Boston's Patriots, defending Eastern Division champions, will try to snap a nine-game exhibition losing string at Buffalo, 1-2, while Denver, with new quarterback Jack Lee, plays Kansas City at Fort Worth, Tex. in Friday night action.

Saturday's NFL schedule has New York vs. Philadelphia at Princeton, N.J., Green Bay at Dallas, Pittsburgh vs. San Francisco at Omaha, and Minnesota at Los Angeles. The AFL has New York vs. San Diego at Atlanta, Ga., and Houston vs. Oakland at Las Vegas, Nev.

Bears, Cards Play Tonight

CHICAGO — A crowd of about 55,000 persons is expected in Soldier Field tonight when the National Football League champion Chicago Bears tangle with the St. Louis Cardinals in the 19th annual Armed Forces Benefit game.

For the 10th straight time, the game is sponsored by the Chicago Newspaper Publishers Association.

Both the Bears and Cards have 2-1 pre-season records. The Bears defeated the College All-Stars in Soldier Field 28-17 and the Washington Redskins 14-13, but last Saturday lost to Green Bay in Milwaukee 21-7.

The Cards have defeated the Packers 20-7 and the Baltimore Colts 30-21. They lost to the Minnesota Vikings 24-10.

The Bears' offensive lineup will include three players making their first start. They are spread end Rich Kreidling, former Illinois star, who was obtained from Cleveland; guard Dick Evey of Tennessee, the Bears' No. 1 draft choice; and the club's No. 2 selection, end Bill Martin of Georgia Tech.

Jon Arnett, who joined the Bears this week in a trade with the Los Angeles Rams, will see action at left halfback. Billy Martin, however, will start in that spot. Ronnie Bull still is nursing a pulled muscle and may see only limited duty. End Mike Ditka also is on the injury list.

Junior Circuit's Top Two Clubs Tangle at Baltimore

CHICAGO — The Chicago White Sox, Baltimore bound Friday for a two-night doubleheader, were ½ game behind the leading Orioles in the American League pennant scramble.

While Baltimore had an off day Thursday, the Sox proceeded to lose 5-2 to the Minnesota Twins. A ninth inning double steal and catcher J. C. Martin's throwing error were packed into a 3-run uprising.

Jimmie Hall singled and relief specialist Hoyt Wilhelm walked Bob Allison with one out in the ninth. The two runners set sail on a double steal try. Martin's throw to third bounded into left field, scoring Hall and sending Allison to third.

It broke a 2-2 stalemate that had lasted since the fifth inning, which Pete Ward led off with his 18th homer.

Two more runs counted in the ninth as Bernie Allen singled across Allison and the third Sox pitcher, Ed Fisher, wildpitched another run home.

Ray Herbert pitched one-hit ball for the Sox until a two-run Minnesota fifth, keyed by Allen's single.

After Ward's blast for the first hit off Mudcat Grant to start the Sox half of the fifth, Chicago picked up another run on a walk and successive singles by Tommy McCraw and Mike Herschberger.

Starting the crucial weekend stand in Baltimore Friday will be Gary Peters (14-7) and Johnny Burhardt (10-7). They will face Wally Bunker (13-3) and Steve Barber (8-10).

The eighth place Cubs return to Wrigley Field Friday for a weekend set with the New York Mets. In the opener, Dick Ellsworth (12-14) will meet Jack Fisher (9-15).

The Cubs, who had a respite Thursday, recalled switch-hitting outfielder Ellis Burton from Fort Worth. Doug Clemens, fine-looking outfielder, was placed on the disabled list. He suffered a compound dislocation of his left little finger in Houston Wednesday.

Deer Season Dates Set

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Dates for the northern Illinois deer season are Nov. 20, 21, 22, and 23, William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation, said today. Purpose of the announcement is to remove any confusion that may have arisen due to previous announcements.

In Northern Illinois quotas have been filled in Carroll, Jo Davies, McHenry, Ogle, Stephenson, and Whiteside Counties.

Central Illinois counties that have been filled are Fulton, Mason, and Peoria. Permits are no longer available for Clinton, Gallatin, Hamilton, Hardin, Jefferson, Johnson, Massac, Monroe, Pope north and south, Saline, Union, and Williamson Counties in Southern Illinois. The deer season dates in Central and Southern Illinois are Nov. 20, 21, and 22, and Dec. 4, 5, and 6.

Lodge said that there would be a delay in issuing deer permits because of the heavy volume of mail received by the permit office. Only free landowner and bow hunting permits are being mailed now. All other successful applications will be held and mailed later. Unsuccessful applications are returned immediately so that hunters may re-apply for permits in counties where quotas have not been reached.

Powers To Discuss Sale of NY Yanks

BOSTON — At long last, after considerable discussion, consternation, unfavorable publicity and some apparent infighting, the American League powers that be are going to get together face to face and discuss the sale of the New York Yankees to CBS.

What's more, says the Columbia Broadcasting System, if it doesn't come out right, they pull out of the whole affair.

Just what prompted the meeting is questionable.

The Yankees, in a formal statement, said Topping "wishes to make it known that President Cronin has acceded to his request that a meeting be called to resolve any possible doubt as to the validity of the transfer."

And, in Chicago, Arthur Allyn, president of the White Sox and an outspoken critic of the sale, suggested the meeting was called as a result of a telegram he had his lawyer send to the American League counsel, Ben Finley.

Joe Cronin, American League president who had once declined to call such a meeting, said it was his own idea.

"I feel it is in the best interest of the league and of all its members that such a meeting be held," he said Thursday.

The meeting is set for Sept. 9 in Boston. At issue is (1) the sale of 80 per cent of the Yankees — for four decades the dominant team in baseball — to CBS for $11.2 million, with option to buy the rest in five years, the sale to become final in November, and (2) the constitutionality of the conditions surrounding the sale, which have been questioned by Allyn and Kansas City owner Charles O. Finley, the only dissenting owners in the American League.

The sale was approved by eight of the 10 league members in a telegraphic poll conducted by Cronin. Finley and Allyn have contended that a meeting should have been called to discuss the sale.

Allyn, Finley and scores of columnists, newspapers and national magazines have decried the sale as putting CBS — as a television network and baseball owners — in the position of both a buyer and a seller. The sale also had drawn attention from the U.S. Congress as a possible violation of the anti-trust laws.

Big Name Golfers Having Troubles at Carling Meet

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. — Oakland Hills' tricky hump-backed greens and rookie nerves hold the answer today as the game's greatest golfers continue their bid in the second round of the $200,000 Carling World Championship Tournament.

The unfathomable greens took their toll of the greats but the nerves of the untied youngsters held firm as 24-year-old George Archer, a pro less than a year, grabbed the first round lead Thursday for the $35,000 first prize with a record five-under-par 65.

Only four players broke Oakland Hills' par 70. Three of them were young pros and the other was Jackie Burke Jr., the baby-faced Texan.

Bruce Devlin, 26, a former Australian amateur star who has been a pro less than three years, was second at 68. Dick Sikes, 24, and Burke were next, tied at 69.

Others were 70 and over, including all the hotshot favorites.

Can the youngsters—Archer, Devlin and Sikes—hold up under the terrific pressure of such a rich tournament?

Can the big name players—Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Ken Venturi and Tony Lema—solve the intricacies of the greens which proved so frustrating on the opening day?

Palmer, who led the so-called Big Three with a 70, needed an 18-foot putt on the final hole to finish level with par, tied with nine others for fifth place.

Gary Player, bunched with almost two dozen players at 72, said "any man who could be sure of sinking a putt over two feet had to be a genius."

Nicklaus missed two putts of under two feet in a round of 73 and said, "I was driving well, but I missed seven greens and I couldn't putt."

Venturi, the National Open winner, admitted he was completely baffled by the rolling greens of the 6,907-yard layout after he fired a 74. "These greens really got my number," Venturi said.

Duck Season Opens Oct. 31

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — A 40-day duck season, opening at sunrise Oct. 31 and closing at sunset Dec. 9, was announced by William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Conservation Department.

The daily bag limit of four ducks may not include more than two wood ducks, two mallards, two canvasbacks or two redheads or one of each. The possession limit of eight ducks may not include more than two wood ducks, four mallards, two canvasbacks or two redheads or one of each.

The daily bag limit on coots is 10 and possession limit is 20.

The limits on American, red-breasted and hooded mergansers in the aggregate of these species are five daily and 10 in possession, of which not more than one daily and ten in possession may be hooded mergansers.

A 70-day split season was selected by the department for the taking of geese.

The season for the taking of geese in all counties except Union, Jackson, Williamson and Alexander counties will be from sunrise Nov. 4 through sunset Dec. 9.

In the counties of Union, Jackson, Williamson and Alexander the season will begin at sunrise Nov. 16, be closed Dec. 24, 25, 26 and reopen Dec. 27, extending through 3 p.m., Jan. 15, 1965. However, the season may be closed prior to Jan. 15 if the established harvest quota of 15,000 Canada geese is reached.

The daily bag and possession limit is five but may not include, in the alternative, more of the following species than two Canada geese or subspecies, two white fronted, or one Canada goose or subspecies and one white fronted goose.

To Perform in Dixon
Paul Hahn, the trick golfer-comedian, is to appear at the Dixon Country Club, Saturday at 6 p.m. The performance is open to the public. Hahn has given exhibitions in 37 different countries, with his most famous part of the act being the double action series.

Major Loop Stars

By The Associated Press PITCHING — Hank Fischer, Milwaukee, recorded his fifth shutout with a three-hit 15-0 victory over San Francisco.

BATTING — Joe Mauer, Los Angeles, hit his 30th career homer and added two singles, driving in three runs, as the Angels whipped Kansas City 7-1.

Mountains Challenge Man

By HENRY J. TAYLOR

Switzerland reports record mountaineering casualties in the second hottest summer of the century.

It's been only 159 years since a vehicle (via the Simplon road) was able to cross the Alps for the first time. And attacking several of the peaks can be a climb up to tell.

In summer Switzerland's Alpine dwellers start at 4 o'clock in the morning and work until nightfall. The cattle stay in the high mountains about 100 days after June 15. But dwellers mostly leave true mountaineering to others and always have.

The area begins at Mont Blanc, the top of Europe, with its white signpost high above the clouds. But Mont Blanc is entirely in France, the Matterhorn partly in Italy, and the highest mountain completely in Switzerland is the unheralded Dom. Then the massifs taper off to become the Bavarian-Austrian Tyrol.

You are in nature's earliest known birdland. Experts agree birds evolved from reptilian stock about 150 million years ago and the earliest known bird (archaeopteryx), plainly shown in lithographic limestone, is from the Bavarian Jurassic. But in the highest reaches, save for a wind, silence is everywhere: The birds call no more. If you are bivouacked and asleep, the silence wakes you, as at sea you awake when the propeller stops.

No peaks remain unconquered. Most can be climbed by a relatively easier route, but many have an "impossible" side — usually on the north. It is the route more than the famous mountain that challenges great mountaineers.

For example, the grim, treacherous and temperamental Elger in the Bernese Oberland is professionally regarded as the world's most difficult climb. I've seen 90 people (rescue parties) on its top at one time. They mounted the east slope. But only a handful ever conquered the vertical north face and 41 have died in the attempt. Still they come. Their determination matches the mountain's.

Mont Blanc was first conquered in 1786 by a crystal hunter and the Chamonix village doctor. They even made a descent from Europe's top that surely no guide would risk now, a moonlight descent of the lower glacier. The Balmat-Picard adventure remains among the most remarkable in the whole record of mountaineering.

In periods like the present, veteran mountaineers drag a 30-foot-long red rope behind them to help rescuers find them, sometimes under snow 20 feet deep, although trained Swiss army dogs can detect a man at this depth, completely buried. Some attacks come suddenly in a cold, slow-motion terror. "The snow creeps," Alpine peasants say. Others strike furiously at incredible speeds and in a mist like the Pacific's unusual, chill drizzle along the South American seacoast.

A wet-snow avalanche is moving fast at 17 miles an hour. By contrast, dry-snow avalanches have been clocked at more than 200 miles an hour. One cubic meter of lightest snow weighs less than 20 pounds. The same quantity of settled, old snow may weigh 1,800 pounds. Because the mixture of snow and air is heavier than the air that surrounds it, the snow cloud pushes columns of air ahead of it, smashing everything before the avalanche strikes and sucking it back below.

Perhaps there is something in the true, challenging mountaineer that symbolizes the eternal right of every man to raise his fist against his fate. But this is a good place to leave vanity and self-importance behind. Nature makes such pygmies of us all.

Hal Boyle Recalls Liberation of Paris

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (U-P) — War is evil. War is ugly. War is wrong. Most of all, however, war is boring and wasteful.

But now and then the long black hours of boredom in war are broken by a bright moment of pure poetry.

Such a moment came 20 years ago this week when French and American troops "liberated" Paris. Actually, Paris itself was not so much liberated as they themselves were freed. To the soldiers, worn from the green hell of Normandy hedgerows, the wide boulevards of "the City of Light" seemed like paths through paradise.

Time gives most of us more midnights than mornings. But to anyone who was in Paris on Aug. 25, 1944, that date remains indelibly engraved in his mind as one of the milestones of his life.

Paris at any time is a delight to the eye of any boy from Elmsville, U.S.A., but on liberation day it was also an utter ecstasy of the spirit.

Everybody was laughing, everybody was young. All the girls were pretty and kissable, and there were no bottoms to the wine bottles.

There was no difference between day and night, and it seemed like the celebrating would go on forever.

Of course, it couldn't — and it didn't. That blinding morning of happiness finally wore out. The people of Paris went back to work, you had to start paying for the wine, and war again became a long, slow, boring, plodding trudge toward victory.

The other evening a group of graying ex-soldiers and paunchy former war correspondents met at the Overseas Press Club in New York and rekindled briefly the lost rapture of liberation day in Paris. "Remember when—" said one fellow.

"Yes, and remember when" said another fellow, who couldn't remember the first fellow's name.

In a way it was sad, as most reunions are. It is hard to warm the heart over the ashes of a 20-year-old bonfire. And missing were such familiar figures as Ernie Pyle, "Red" Knickerbocker, Ernest Hemingway, A. J. Liebling, Clark Lee and Bob Capa, all gone down time's drain.

Looking back across the last two decades, I can think of no one who knew better the dangers of war and perils of peace than Ernie Pyle. Numbed himself by the horrors of combat, he wrote shortly before the liberation of Paris:

"All of us together will have to learn how to reassemble our broken world into a pattern so firm and so fair that another great war cannot soon be possible."

Things Dixon Talked About

(From the files of the Dixon Evening Telegraph)

10 YEARS AGO

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Wade and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Grader, Oregon, are vacationing in Wisconsin.

This week's story from the Dixon Country club lady golfers brings news that Lu Miller is champion of the lady linkswomen for the 1954 season. Chic Nilson is runner up.

Miss Donna Welty left Friday to take up a teaching position in Lewiston, Idaho. Enroute she will make visits in Denver, Salt Lake City and in Spokane. While in the latter city she will be a guest at the B. L. Shepard home. The Shepards are former Dixon residents.

25 YEARS AGO

Leslie Long, of near Sterling, won the first place in the horse shoe pitching contest at the Lee County Fair and Horse Show. Lyle Fordam of Dixon, placed second.

The misses Avis Ankney, Bonnie McGinnis, and Jeanne Hemmen spent today in Chicago.

This department is preparing a pre-season football special to appear on Thursday, the day before the schools in this vicinity begin their gridiron drills. Watch for it.

40 YEARS AGO

A. L. Doolittle and E. W. Smith returned yesterday from a three week's motor trip to Minneapolis, playing golf on every course between Dixon and Minneapolis.

The relatives, friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart of Milaca, Minn., who have been visiting Mr. Stewart's mother, Mrs. Anna Stewart, entertained them last evening with a dancing party at the pavilion at Assembly Park Hotel. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening. Old fashioned dances, the quadrille and waltz, were indulged in and everyone had a pleasant and most enjoyable time.

75 Years Ago

The water in Rock river is very low and daily growing lower. You can now walk across the dam dry shod, and catch about all the water that flows over in ten minutes in your hat.

Hon. Sherwood Dixon has been appointed special master in chancery to take testimony in a celebrated will case at Sycamore, Illinois.

Dixon's prospects are definitely on the upward grade. Not only is there a fair prospect that the city will be supplied with artesian water in the near future, but we also hear some talk of an electric street railway. This may, however, take some time to materialize.

If you wish to imagine you are standing on the pebbly beach at Saratoga or some other fashionable watering spa, take a stand on Galena street below Main street, close your eyes and cut the string of imagination. By-and-by, as the wheels of the wagon go grinding over the newly laid gravel, you will be sure that the carriages of millionaires are rattling past filled with beauty and fashion.

Barbs

By HAL COCHRAN

A really smart man is one who can convince his wife she would look terrible in a bikini.

The old-time movies take you back, while the commercials take you back to the kitchen.

You can let well enough alone by not taking medicine that's really not needed.

The pessimist is fortunate that most of the time things aren't as bad as he thinks they are.

Mosquitoes must have wonderful eyesight, the way they can find that one little ray in the screens.

en world into a pattern so firm and so fair that another great war cannot soon be possible.

"Submersion in war does not necessarily qualify a man to be the master of the peace. All we can do is fumble and try once more—try out of the memory of our anguish—and be as tolerant with each other as we can."

Dear Ann:

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: I am going with a nut. Last night when he arrived to take me to a party he had a black patch over a perfectly good eye. At first I was frightened. I thought something terrible might have happened to him. I should have known better. He is always doing crazy things like that.

If the party is formal he wears a dinner jacket—and tennis shoes. Or instead of a formal shirt, he'll wear a turtle-neck sweater or an ascot.

Last year he grew a half a mustache. I refused to kiss him till he shaved it off. (It took three weeks before he gave in.)

Last week he tried to pay a bar bill with Chinese money. He got into an argument with the bartender and I was embarrassed to tears. We were asked to leave.

Believe it or not, he has many fine qualities and is considered a good catch. I'd like to marry him, but frankly I'm afraid. What do you say? — SHAKEY SHIELA

Dear Shakey: If these small-boy antics embarrass you now, I can promise you that after marriage they will drive you out of your mind.

A guy who is as flakey as this one sounds would probably sign the marriage certificate with invisible ink — then where would you be, Toots?

Dear Ann Landers: We gave our daughter a telephone of her own for her 16th birthday. It was what Linda wanted most in all the world. She begged for it for two years. To be honest, I was happy to see her get her own telephone because our line was constantly tied up by her calls. This is what happened:

The other evening my husband and I were out. He was expecting an important business call and tried to telephone home to learn if the call had come through. Well, he tried for 30 minutes to get our line without success. He finally got so mad he got into the car and drove home. There he found Linda, lying on our bed yakking on our telephone.

He asked her why she was not using her own phone. She replied, "I am expecting Bill to call and I wanted to leave my line free." What do we do NOW? — STONEWALL

Dear Stonewall: Now you tell Linda that if she pulls such a stunt again she will no longer have her own phone nor will she be able to use your phone. And tell her in terms that will leave no room for speculation.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband passed away six months ago. He was a fine man, 14 years my senior, and treated me very well. He had three daughters by a previous marriage. (He was a widower.)

Before I married Jerrold I had a good position in a bank. I returned to work several weeks after Jerrold died just to keep occupied.

A man who is an officer of the bank is a long-time friend. His wife passed away two years ago. He invited me to have dinner with him, and see a play. I didn't know if it would be proper so I asked my clergyman. He said "Yes, go," so I did.

This morning two of my stepdaughters telephoned me to say I had disgraced the memory of their father by going out with a man "before he was cold in his grave."

I am sick about this. Do you feel I should stay home for a full year as the girls said? I want to go out with this man again, but not at the expense of creating trouble in the family. Your views are welcome. — ANNAMARIE

Dear Annmarie: Before you accepted the date you consulted an excellent authority — your clergyman. He gave you what I feel was superb advice, and I hope you will continue to follow it. If the girls have any further criticism, direct them to him.

ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Date Bait," gives sound and solid rules for teen-age dating. To receive a copy, enclose with your request 20c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Today in History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, Aug. 28, the 241st day of 1964. There are 125 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1944, advancing American troops reached Chateau Thierry, beginning the re-conquest of a continent the Nazis boasted they had turned into a fortress. It was the same battlefield where their fathers had fought in World War I.

In 1912, the Palace of Peace, a gift of Andrew Carnegie, was dedicated at the Hague.

In 1922, the first Walker Cup international golf match was held at Southampton, N.Y.

In 1926, U.S. Marines landed at Bluefields, Nicaragua, where they had been much of the time from 1912 to 1925, remaining again until 1932.

In 1940, German and Italian planes attacked the Egyptian city of Port Said.

In 1946, Moscow announced that food rationing would continue in Russia into 1947.

Ten years ago—A British Labor party delegation including former Prime Minister Clement Attlee, toured Red Chinese cities on its return home by way of Hong Kong.

Five years ago — President Dwight D. Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan flew to Scotland for an overnight visit with Queen Elizabeth and her family at Balmoral Castle.

One year ago—Some 200,000 Negroes and whites held a civil rights rally in Washington, D. C.

MINUTEMAN COSTS LESS

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (U-P) — The Air Force estimates it costs $100,000 annually to maintain a solid-fuel Minuteman intercontinental range missile on station. This compares with an upkeep figure of $1 million a year for each of the earlier liquid-fuel, more complex Atlas and Titan ICBMs.

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—I have heard that contact lenses could cause blindness and cancer. Is this true? When a person sees well when wearing contacts, what causes blurred vision when the lenses are removed and glasses which are correctly prescribed are put on?

A—To attribute cancer to contact lenses is a vicious rumor of the type which, although completely false, is hard to stamp out once it gets started. When properly used, contact lenses will not cause blindness. But careless or improper use may cause scratching or infection of the cornea and lead to some decrease in vision.

When contact lenses have been worn for several hours there is usually some blurring when they are removed. This is due to the pressure of the lenses on the cornea but it should clear up in about 15 minutes. The fitting of contact lenses is not a simple matter like buying a new hat. It should be done only by a qualified eye specialist.

Q—What would be the effect of prolonged exposure to carbon tetrachloride fumes or having this chemical on your hands while removing spots from clothes?

A—Carbon tetrachloride is a powerful poison and should never be used indoors except by an open window. In persons who have been drinking any alcoholic beverage, the effect of this poison is much quicker and more severe. Such symptoms as headache, vomiting, diarrhea and pain in the abdomen may occur after an exposure of only a few minutes if the exposure takes place in an enclosed space.

Absorption of carbon tetrachloride can also occur through the skin but this is much slower and hence less of a hazard. In persons who have had a heavy exposure to the fumes or who have accidentally drunk this poison, severe damage to the kidneys and liver may occur. The best treatment is prevention. Anyone who develops acute carbon tetrachloride poisoning should be treated in a hospital until all danger of a delayed reaction has passed.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Ruth Millett

Pick up the paper almost any day and, if you're a woman you'll see an article telling you how to make your husband a success.

In order to be successful at their jobs wives need help as much as husbands do.

In fact, just about every rule laid down for women to help their husbands could as well be used by husbands to help their wives.

Rule one for wives is usually: "Give your husbands plenty of appreciation and encouragement. Let him know that you believe in him." What wife wouldn't be a more successful homemaker if her husband followed that same rule in regard to her?

Rule two is almost sure to be: "Make his home life happy." Well, what about your home life? It ought to be happy, too. And a woman with a grouchy or uncommunicative husband has as much trouble feeling like a successful human being as a husband with a nagging or indifferent wife.

Rule three is probably: "Be an asset to him socially." Well, that ought to work both ways, too. It's a rare woman who doesn't put herself out to be charming to her husband's friends and business associates, how- ever dull they may be. But the husband who make no effort to be sociable to the friends of his wife that he finds boring isn't a rare bird at all.

Rule four is, of course: "Learn as much as you can about your husband's business, so that he can at least discuss it with you." But if mom is going to listen with bated breath while dad discusses problems, shouldn't he at least come out from behind his newspaper when she wants to talk about her day?

So let's remember, husbands, that the rules are not just for wives. You, too, can give the little woman a chance for success once in a while.

Classroom and Teacher Shortages Main Problem

Airman Ends First Phase Of Training

GLENN E. SMITH

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — Airman Glenn E. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon G. Smith, 311 W. Hitt, Mount Morris, has completed the first phase of his Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

Airman Smith has been selected for technical training as a transportation specialist at an air training command (ATC) school at Sheppard AFB, Tex. His new unit is part of the ATC system which trains airmen and officers in the diverse skill required by the nation's aerospace force.

The airman is a 1964 graduate of Mount Morris High School.

War Won't Be Issue, Says Kerner

ATLANTIC CITY (AP) — Gov. Otto Kerner doesn't believe the war in South Viet Nam will be a major campaign issue nationally or in Illinois.

Kerner expressed the view in response to a reporter's question. He said the U.S. Mission in Viet Nam "has been a bipartisan effort as it should be, as witness the support given it by Republican leadership."

In this connection, he mentioned specifically Henry Cabot Lodge, former ambassador in Saigon and the 1960 Republican vice presidential nominee.

Kerner dismissed Sen. Barry Goldwater's statement Tuesday predicting early announcement of a negotiated settlement and declaring neutralization would be an "open door to communist infiltration."

Kerner said "a Goldwater statement cannot elicit comment because it is subject to change."

The four-day Democratic National Convention in this seaside resort helped Kerner's candidacy for a second term in the opinion of many Illinois delegates.

Not only did he get a good share of exposure but Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago went out of his way to boost Kerner at every opportunity and often deferred to him at their joint daily news conference.

Daley said Kerner was capable of stating the issues of the campaign and there was no need to bring outside speakers into Illinois.

Most Illinois delegates to the convention planned to head for home today or to the World's Fair in New York.

Teachers' Meeting Set At Franklin

FRANKLIN GROVE — Franklin Center High School will have a teachers' meeting from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. Monday and students will register from 1 to 3 p.m.

From 1 to 1:45 p.m. locker assignments will be given and all fees should be paid. Each student will be assigned to an adviser and room to report for completion of registration.

From 1:45 to 3 p.m. the school will run a short schedule of all classes. School will operate all day Tuesday and the cafeteria will operate during the noon period.

The buses will run the regular routes beginning Monday.

Halt Beef Buying

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government halted purchase of frozen beef this week because of price increases.

The Agriculture Department has been buying beef since March for the dual purpose of bolstering producer prices of cattle and of providing meat for needy persons and the school lunch program. Purchases total 189 million pounds at a cost of $107 million.

The department did buy, however, 2 million pounds of canned beef processed from lower grade cattle.

SPRINGFIELD (AP) — Doors of nearly 2,400 new grade and high school classrooms will open next week when students throughout Illinois start the fall term.

And nearly 3,600 more teachers will be on hand than the 32,300 who staffed the schools a year ago.

Despite these increases, two major problems which have nagged school administrators for years — shortages of classrooms and qualified teachers — will remain.

Ray Page, state school supt., estimates at least 2,063,000 pupils will enroll in public schools, an increase of about 80,000 over last year. Private schools will absorb another half million students.

Classroom shortages generally will be most acute in the more densely populated northern areas of the state, Page said in an interview.

Many communities simply haven't constructed enough classrooms to keep pace with spiraling enrollments.

"Some of our districts might have an average of 35 or 40 students per teacher," Page said.

"That's absolutely too many." Page said the ideal teacher-pupil ratio varies with the type of class being conducted.

"There should not be more than 25 pupils in some classes," he added. "In slow-learning classes there shouldn't be more than 15 or 20 pupils."

Although some 86,000 teachers will be on hand to greet students opening day, Page estimated schools statewide will be short about 10,000 qualified teachers.

"We'll have the classrooms manned," Page said, "but many of the teachers will have only provisional or temporary certificates."

The most acute teacher shortages will be in the fields of special education, foreign languages, physical sciences and girls physical education.

Big demands also will be felt for counselors, said Dr. John O'Neill, a key official in Page's office.

There were about 1,200 counselors in grade and high schools a year ago. This year the number will be increased to approximately 1,650.

Counselors are effective in combating the drop-out problem, O'Neill said, because they help students find challenges in the classroom.

O'Neill is assistant superintendent

Miss Cook Re-Elected To Post

STEWART — Miss Florence Cook, principal of the Shabbona High School, was re-elected president of the board of Shamel Manor, the home for retired teachers, at a recent meeting of the board of directors.

Miss Cook, a past state president of the Illinois Education Assn. which is sponsoring the home, being constructed at Normal, has been in close contact with the planning of the building of the home as a director of the Shamel Manor board prior to her election twice as president.

The primary purpose of the Illinois Assn. in sponsoring Shamel Manor is to provide a residence located and director of instructional and pupil personnel services.

equipped and managed to take advantage of the common interests of teachers for healthful, happy living in retirement.

There are 80 one-room apartments for single occupancy in Shamel Manor, suitably furnished and decorated, with ample closet space and private bath attached.

Similar arrangements are provided for 6 one-room apartments for double occupancy and four twin bedded rooms with living room attached.

President Cook states that the home will open in October of this year.

Ralph Morrissett of Springfield, is the architect.

HIT AND WALK, MAYBE

SPARKS, Nev. (AP) — Dist. Atty. William J. Raggio's car was damaged in what officers described as a hit and run accident during a statehood centennial celebration in Sparks.

Witnesses reported the culprit vehicle was an old-fashioned wagon pulled by a team of horses.

Ogle Young Democrats Will Meet

POLO — The Young Democrats of Ogle County will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the National Bank Building, Rochelle, located on Lincoln Highway, and guest speaker will be Tom Hanahan, candidate for the state legislature.

At this meeting final plans will be made for the YD tent at the Ogle County Fair and assignments will be delegated.

Scheduled also is a report by Dean Wilson and Gary Porter, Polo, who represented the local organization at the Democratic National Convention, Atlantic City, N.J. These young Democrats participated in a number of activities, including the telecast of the Young Citizens for Johnson on the convention floor Thursday. This is the first time for such a rally in the history of the convention.

Other activities for Wilson and Porter included helping celebrate the President's birthday, attending workshops, running errands, conducting tours and observing at least one regular session of the convention. Senator Birch Bayh of Indiana is the chairman of the youth group.

BUSINESS NEEDED

RENO — The Reno Better Business Bureau is looking for better business.

The bureau said it might have to go out of business unless it found more businessmen willing to pay their dues.

Donald Cralle said the bureau had enlisted 260 members in its 18 months, but needed at least 500 to be in good financial shape.

Curling shingles and bald spots are

DANGER SIGNALS ON YOUR ROOF

• The first big storm can cause emergency damage to an old roof (15 years or more). A bad storm can ruin ceilings as well as shingles... cause additional costs for roof repairs alone.

• It will pay you to check now... Amazing new Bird WIND SEAL shingles are the best, most economical solution to your roof problem.

• Storms can lash and slash at Bird WIND SEAL shingles and never budge a tab because every shingle is automatically sealed down tight... welded together by the sun with seals of weatherproof cement at 19,000 points on the average roof. Even hurricane winds can't lift these shingles. Call us for free estimate today.

CONVICTS AS GUARDS

CARSON CITY, Nev. — There was a guillotine set up in the Nevada Prison yard and some of the convicts were guards.

It wasn't a revolution in penal philosophy. The prison was being used for location filming of Jean Genet's play, "Deathwatch."

About 100 inmates participated as extras. Most portrayed inmates of a French prison in the 1930s, but a few played the parts of guards.

Key West derives its name from the Spanish "cayo" (key) and "hue-so" (bones) not from its geographic location. Key West was once a battleground for prehistoric Indians whose bones were found scattered around the island.
